

Opening the Gate...

for Friends of Domestic Violence Shelter & Services, Inc.
Wilmington, North Carolina

October 2004

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month

While domestic violence is not confined by the calendar, October has been recognized nationally as Domestic Violence Awareness Month. This is a time to unite as a community, to mourn the loss of victims of domestic violence, recognize the brave survivors, and celebrate the progress being made in condemning and ending domestic violence. A complete listing of events may be found inside this newsletter.

Leading the charge to end domestic violence is Jackson Katz, the nationally acclaimed violence prevention educator. We are excited to announce that he is coming to our community! On Tuesday, October 19, 2004, Jackson Katz will present, "More than a Few Good Men" at Trask Coliseum, UNCW from 7:00 p.m.-8:30 p.m. He is a thought inspiring speaker and is widely recognized for his groundbreaking work in the field of gender violence prevention education with men and boys, particularly in the sports culture and the military. We urge you to join us for this community program featuring challenging dialogue focused on the issues of men's violence against women. This is an incredible opportunity to give the men and boys in our lives an evening that will examine their attitude about their responsibility in fostering a non-violent world. Moms and Dads please bring your high school sons, coaches your athletes, teachers your students, and churches your youth groups to this most compelling evening that can truly change attitudes, actions and outcomes. Together we can make a difference!

Also mark your calendar for the annual Take Back The Night March and Rally on Thursday, October 7, 2004, Riverfront Park in downtown Wilmington beginning at 7:00 p.m. The March will proceed through downtown returning back to the park for the rally portion of the evening's program.

Sara Straeten from WECT-TV6 will be the emcee and the guest speakers will include child survivor, Karin Cox who is also the Executive Director of the Parenting Place and Clancy Thompson, Executive Director of the Child Advocacy Commission. The local band, Calamity will accent the moving candlelight ceremony, along with a singing duet by sisters Mary Margaret and Katie Link, as we gather together working to end domestic violence.

Other awareness events include the traveling photography display, "Through A Child's Eyes", which will showcase photographs taken by children of images that make them feel happy, safe, and protected. We thank Target for their generous donation of cameras for the project and to Walgreens Drug Store for donating cameras and for developing the many rolls of film.

It is not too early for unique gifts from the heart

We and the children from the Shelter are thrilled to give you a sneak preview of the darling angel honor card for the 2004 holiday season. The angel was chosen early this year and many children participated in the coloring of the chosen angel. Please consider honoring those on your holiday gift list by making a donation in their name to the Shelter.

This is a creative alternative to buying gifts and a very meaningful gift for those you love.

Contact Kitty Yerkes at 343-9969 Ext. 17 to place your order early.

A Special Memorial

It is with great sorry that we remember Christen Naujoks who died tragically in June 2004 at the young age of 22. We join with her family and everyone who knew her, as we search for ways to turn the tragic event of her violent death, into a time of renewed efforts to prevent this from ever happening again. We challenge ourselves, policymakers, and the boarder community to join together, refusing to tolerate domestic violence in any form. Our prayers go out to the Naujoks family as we mourn the tremendous loss of their daughter. Holly Naujoks, Christen's mom, compelled to help others, inspires tremendous admiration and respect for her commitment to do everything in her power to ensure that Christen did not die in vain. Christen's memory will live on many ways, including as one of the "silent witness", which pays tribute to individuals who have lost their life at the hands of an abuser. Let us all, this October, Domestic Violence Awareness Month, in Christen's memory, create a path to peace in our families, our neighborhoods and our community.

Domestic Violence Laws Strengthened in 2004 Session

North Carolina legislators passed historic legislation this session through the hard work of the House Select Committee on Domestic Violence. This comprehensive legislation will improve our state's response to domestic violence, strengthens the laws on the crimes of domestic violence, and provides funding for domestic violence programs and victims. We thank Representative Carolyn Justice from Pender and New Hanover County, among others, who served on the committee for their important and successful advocacy for victims. To see the text of the bill, go to www.ncleg.net and enter (H#1354).

Fundraisers During Domestic Violence Awareness Month

18th Annual Chili Cook-Off

Who really makes the best chili? Do you have a recipe you want to try out on a discerning crowd? The prize money from the professional judging includes $1,000 for first place, $500 for second place, $250 for third place, and $250 for showmanship exhibited in the chili booth. There is also a $1,000 prize for the people's choice for the best chili. So come to Hugh MacRae Park on Saturday, October 23, 2004 to taste and critique the delicious offerings from area restaurants. The gates open at 11:00 a.m., tasting begins at 12 noon and the bands play all day. Tickets for tasting the chili are $5 and 100% of those proceeds support our Shelter, thanks to the generosity of Jackson Beverage. There will be plenty for the kids to do with the Space Walk, and if the chili is too hot try some snow cones, cotton candy, and popcorn. Other activities will include "Hands Are Not For Hitting", face painting, balloon sculptures, and much more.

We look forward to continued volunteer support from loyal friends, including Avon Representatives, NC Jr. Sorosis members, UNCW honor society, the FMLA organization and several fraternities and sororities. More fun loving volunteers are needed for set up on Friday morning and for the event on Saturday if you are looking for a community service project.

The complete listing of up-coming fundraisers will outline how you can provide support of the Shelter by shopping, walking, getting a hair cut, and taking a Halloween cruise. Call Kitty Yerkes, Development Director at 343-9969 Ext. 17 for more details.

Target employees volunteer with the Children's Program on the Fourth Of July helping to make holiday decorations for the Shelter celebration. Standing in the back, dressed in their signature red Target shirts is Kristen Johns, Sylvia Carter, and Sue Cruess. Lauren Stevenson, UNCW intern, front right, also enjoys working with the children in the Shelter.

We Want To Help You

By providing a place of support, information and healing...

Those seeking or offering assistance are most welcome to stop by the Open Gate, 2901 Market Street from Monday through Friday from 9 to 5 or call 343-0703. All of our non-residential services, including a resource area, are based out of this center. We are here to help those in need and offer a path to new beginnings through our work and yours.

Agency Statistics

In the first six months of this year, our agency has provided direct services for an average of 192 victims per month. This represents an 18% increase over the previous year.

During the same time, community and outreach education reached 1,422 children and young adults from 84 presentations.

These efforts facilitated prevention and the elimination of violence and oppression against women.

Fundraising By Others

The Diligence Dash and Golf Tournament

We thank our friends at US Coast Guard for donating a portion of the proceeds from their 5K Run and the many wonderful folks at Porters Neck Plantation who ran the golf tournament fundraiser. Special thanks to Clark Pearson and John Magyar, as the chief organizers of the very successful golf tournament and to Steve McKenzie as the corporate sponsor from Wachovia Securities and in-kind donations from the Star News, Marci Fox; WECT TV-6, John Shine; Time Warner, Marty Feurer; and Chic-fil-a, Raymond Skelton. We thank everyone who played a hand in raising a total $7,785 to benefit the Shelter!

The Commanding Officer, ENS Mike Vega, and Carole and John Magyar.

9th Annual Tennis Tournament

Once again we thank Amy Taylor (also First Vice-President of our Board), Dianne Phillips, and Jim Glancy for running a fabulous tournament, and the 100 Person/$100 Dollar Pledge, together raising almost $15,000 for the Shelter. The list of pledge donors is outlined later in this newsletter. J. Michael's Philly Deli provided a grand lunch for everyone, Laura Dobbins and Mary Ann Adkins worked on the raffle, Georgie Pocheptsov donated original art work for the cause, Lou Nieper got it all on film, Holly Tree Racquet Club was the gracious host, and everyone knew about the tourney because of the many posters, brochures and flyers donated by Copycat Print Shop in Anderson Square, thank you Betsy Kahn!

*Top: A great crowd turned up for a fun day of tennis and a great cause at our 9th Annual Tennis Tournament!

The UNCW Women's Resource Center sponsored a V-Day performance at Kenan Auditorium along with several awareness events to generate broader attention to the movement to stop violence against women. All the proceeds were for the benefit of our agency and the Rape Crisis Center of Coastal Horizons. We thank Betsey Ervin, English professor and the Director of the Women's Resource Center, and student leader Sarah Aimone, for both the kind donation of $1,245 and for their belief in our work and those we serve.

Longhorn Steakhouse Charity Dinner donated $1,220 to the Shelter while celebrating the opening of their new restaurant in Mayfair. We thank Kurt Hales, Managing Partner for a delicious evening with a new friend of the Shelter.

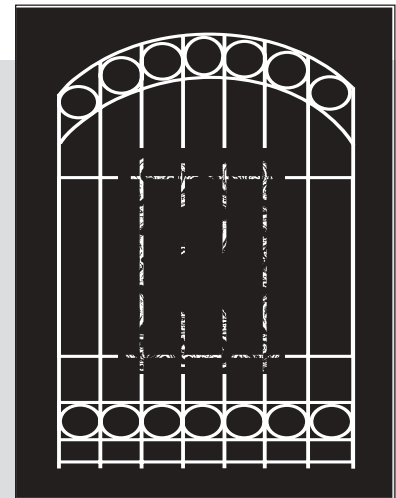

Other groups who found creative ways to financially support the Shelter during this period include Ebony Cosmetology Club # 6 with a dinner dance, Port City Chiropractic, Dr. Regina Freeman with the "Have A Heart" donation project, and Tidal Creek Foods with its Compassionate Living Festival Fundraiser.

It's Time to Start Thinking About the Holidays...

When you are preparing your Christmas lists this year, don't forget about our Gates of Wilmington poster! This limited edition poster would be a wonderful gift for anyone who loves Wilmington. Each poster comes with a detailed description and history of the featured gates.

Please call to reserve your poster now. Or stop by The Open Gate to purchase one. The cost is $20.00 plus tax . A great gift for a great cause!

Staff Spotlight: Neely Atkinson

A new voice, with the unique capacity to meet the challenges of helping domestic violence victims, softly resonates from Neely Atkinson, our newest staff member. Joining us in June as Court Advocate. Neely brings a broad range of intervention experience having worked as a Juvenile Court Counselor for New Hanover County and at Crisis Line Open House Emergency Youth Shelter, Coastal Horizons. She graduated from UNCW majoring in Sociology and Criminal Justice in 2000. Also providing safety for our citizens is Neely's husband of three years, Tom Poelling, who is a police officer. They share their new home with two dogs — Daisy, a Beagle mix, and Cayenne a Jack Russell, and watching over all, is Maggie the cat and beta fish, Bass.

Neely's background has prepared her well and her passion to help others is heartfelt, as she exhibits grace under pressure. With her comforting, gentle smile and patient approach, Neely helps victims during a most vulnerable and overwhelming time of their life. Neely lends support to as many as 15-20 women a week navigate the complex judicial system. She assists with court preparation, and the preparation of legal documents such as protective orders, and providing accompaniment for both civil and criminal courts. When not in the court room, she quietly welcomes those who walk in the doors at the Open Gate. Always ready to listen, she offers comfort, practical advice, and insightful counseling. Each day Neely's kind, compassionate, and effective work with Shelter clients and their families can be felt as women are empowered to take their rightful place in a home free of violence that they deserve.

N·E·W·S

This month we highlight our shop on College Road. Opened in December 1999, Vintage Values on College owes its tremendous success to an amazing volunteer team. Natasya Frassrand, Store Manager shares her sweet smile when she talks of volunteerism and the amazing women who come to the shop. Their work is never complete, as volunteers process the many wonderful donations, spruce up racks and shelve clothing, shoes, purses, books, and household items. With a smile and the contagious energy to keep the store running, volunteers sort through and put out hundreds of items every day

At Vintage Values, Natasya said she witness the tremendous kindness in the daily tasks performed by our volunteers. The words in every volunteer's heart can be heard through their unconditional commitment to efforts greater than themselves. No one can say for sure why everybody shows up, but, in the end, I think it's because they are an extraordinary group of people. We appreciate them every day, month, and now years.

New Elder Abuse Project

The idea for an Elder Abuse project was launched by taking a look at our own service statistics. Despite the accelerated population growth of those aged 65+ in New Hanover County, our agency worked with only five elder abuse victims last year and sheltered only one. We know that the elder abuse victim has suffered in silence for too long. We want to bring this underserved population to the forefront through a collaborative initiative, featuring both outreach to identify victims and the development of an array of age-sensitive direct services. Partners on this project include the Cape Fear Area Agency on Aging, the NHC Department of Aging, the Adult Protective Services Unit of the Department of Social Services, and the Gerontology Department of UNCW. Funding is provided by the NC Governor's Crime Commission. If you or someone you know is in need of this program, please contact Angel Funk, Outreach Coordinator at 343-0703.

Volunteers Complete Training

Domestic Violence Shelter and Services, Inc. and Coastal Horizons Center, Inc., Rape Crisis Center joined together to offer a 32-hour, comprehensive crisis intervention volunteer training program for volunteers interested in advocacy and direct service for victims. We thank the many individuals who completed the training on October 2, 2004. Without these highly trained and dedicated volunteers, we could not continue to provide quality crisis intervention services to our community. If you would like to learn more about other types of volunteer opportunities, please contact Heather Patterson at 343-9969 Ext. 13.

Children from the Shelter visit the "Wacky Bear Factory" at the mall. A total of ten children from the Shelter have enjoyed this wonderful, sweet and fun experience thanks to the generosity of Mary Grace Gavette, store manager.

Domestic Violence in the Workplace Summit

Have you ever thought about the real cost of domestic violence to businesses? On a national level, the annual cost to employers is estimated to be $3 to $5 million in absenteeism and medical costs (The National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health). 91 percent of corporate leaders (9 out of 10) believe that domestic violence affects both private lives and the working lives of their employees (The National Center on Domestic Violence).

A Domestic Violence in the Workplace Summit will be held on December 8, 2004, at the Holiday Inn Sunspree, from 7:30 am – 1:00 pm. The purpose of the summit is to raise awareness of the impact domestic violence in the workplace and to provide the necessary tools, model practices, and best practices business to business for a healthy workplace.

This event is sponsored by Verison Wireless, and is co-sponsored by the City of Wilmington, New Hanover County and Evolve Wilmington in affiliation with our agency. The target audience for the summit includes business owners, human resource professionals, and anyone in the business community interested in prevention of domestic violence. Registration is $25 which includes breakfast and lunch. To learn more about this important upcoming summit, contact Stephanie Wertlake, Prevention Specialist at our office at 343-0703 Ext. 22.

UNCW Task Force on Campus Violence

Following the recent tragic deaths of two UNCW students, Chancellor Rosemary DePaolo formed the Task Force on Campus Violence Prevention. Members have been charged with reviewing the safety and security of the campus community, with particular emphasis on student interactions with each other. The work will conclude with a report containing recommendations to the Chancellor, due on December 17, 2004. Two agency representatives have been appointed to the task force: Dr. Earl Sheridan, Board of Directors and Mary Ann Lama, Executive Director. For more information about the task force, you may visit their website at www.uncw.edu/news/taskforce.

Our 2004 Fashion Show was another great hit! Thanks to the hard work of our 2004 Fashion Coordinator Becca Nelson, seen here with her adorable son, Charlie.
